In Division 1: The top 4 firms with a single win for each ensuring they play in the finals, with the top 2 still open. The return of skipper Chris after two weeks saw Hornets control their game with Palms. Seagulls comfortably won over Koalas, a 5 for Joe late in the game was not enough, unlike the Saints who used the lead it gave to keep Swans at bay. Swans closed to be 5 shots down on end 18 unable to score again. Rockets & Brumbies paced with equal number of ends to end 16, only an unlucky knock off and loss on the replay keeping Brumbies ahead. Skipper Bruce unfortunately assisted in providing the perfect 8, which Graeme accepted with good grace. A crucial game for the Rockets to lose after last winning spilling Saints.

In Division 2: The top 4 appears set with Larpents teams looking to both be in the finals. Panthers & Wrens had a close game until a 6 followed by third & skipper knock offs put them 15 shots up with only 2 ends to go. Kanyana 2 led Falcons most of the game to be 3 shots down with 2 ends to play, singles on these kept them out of the winners group again. Cats continued their strong form to keep Tigers chasing. The Carlisle boys trip to Yeodene gave them a handy win.
